2. ANN JENNINGS was born at Sandwich 17 October 1670, daughter of John¹ and Ruhama (Turner) Jennings.⁵ She married, about 1693, Joseph³ Holway, born about 1668 and died testate at Sandwich in 1732. He was a son of Joseph² (Joseph¹) and Mary (Hull) (Capt. Tristram², Rev. Joseph¹ Hull) Holway (also spelled Holley/Holloway). The will of Joseph³ Holway of Sandwich, yeoman, dated 4 Oct. and proved 27 Dec. 1732, gives: to my loving wife Ann the improvement of all real and personal estate, so long as she remains my widow. To son Joseph £8; to son Gideon (whom he made executor), meadows in Barnstable and £150, also housing and other land in Sandwich and Barnstable; to four daughters Reliance, Mary, Anne, and Meribah [surnames not given], £60 each. The inventory dated 15 November 1732 shows real estate appraised at £2000.⁸
